COPYRIGHT STATEMENT

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials including foreign works under certain conditions. In addition, the United States extends protection to foreign works by means of various international conventions, bilateral agreements, and proclamations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

The Columbia University Libraries reserve the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

OFFICE OF STATE BANK COMMISSIONER,
TOPEKA, KAS., December 19, 1893.

Hon. L. D. Lewelling, Governor of Kansas:

DEAR SIR—While there is no provision of law requiring a report from this department at this time, the fact that there is a general demand for information in regard to the condition of the banks of Kansas which are under the control of this department, and the further fact that there exists in the minds of many people, particularly in the eastern states, an impression that Kansas has been more seriously affected by the recent financial panic than other portions of the country, lead me to conclude that a report showing the condition of our banks in detail will have a tendency to correct this erroneous impression. I therefore submit a special report, showing the condition of all national, state and private banks doing business in the state of Kansas on the third day of October, 1893, together with a summary of the condition of such banks at other periods during the year, and a statement showing the condition of all banks that have been forced to suspend business during the year.

I am indebted to the officers of national banks doing business in this state, and to Hon. J. H. Eckles, comptroller of the currency, for information which enables me to embrace said banks in this report, and I hereby tender them my thanks for the courtesy thus extended.

A comparison of this and former reports will enable us to comprehend how remarkable is the showing made by our banks at this time, and the bankers of our state are to be congratulated upon their success, in the face of the greatest money panic ever known in the country, and in addition thereto an almost total crop failure in many portions of our state.

The large number of bank failures has involved a great amount of extra work in this department, and the force at my command has at times been wholly inadequate; but notwithstanding this fact the work at this time is well in hand, and by the close of my first year's administration of this office (March 1, 1894) every bank under my control will have been examined according to law.

Very truly yours,

JNO. W. BREIDENTHAL,
Bank Commissioner.
